January-March Prayer Letter

“That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it.”

Psalms 109:27

The Lord used the above scripture in my heart a while ago. The Lord drew my attention to the fact that, it was the testimony He wanted me to have concerning His work in my heart and life as well as in the ministry that He has entrusted into my care. Since then, this scripture has always been a reminder to me that all the things that are happening in my life and the steps that are being taken towards the ministry that God has called me should be to the ultimate goal that God alone will be seen and glorified because He alone has done all the things that are happening in my life.

In light of this, the Lord has truly glorified Himself and proven beyond reasonable doubts that He alone can do the impossible. In the winter of 2020, I began to seek the Lord for clear direction regarding what steps He would have me taken in preparation for the ministry in Ghana that He has called me to. He made it clear that He would have me seek the partnership of a local church and a mission agency in that process. He also wanted me to take steps toward a summer internship for my seminary training. I was glad that the Lord had given me these directions but as to how these were going to happen, I had no idea. I began seeking His face for confirmation of these directions and the next steps to take towards those goals. In my estimation, everything was going as planned then, COVID hit! Then the Lord reminded me again and again that it's going to take Him to get anything done.

I trusted the Lord and went ahead with the necessary steps that I knew the Lord wanted me to take. I saw the Lord answer prayer after prayer, open door after door, I saw Him do the impossible over and over again. I was able to do my summer internship during COVID, the ministry opportunity was unique and during my internship, I learned the sole force of local church ministry—prayer! A couple of months after finishing my internship, I was appointed with Baptist World Mission to Ghana, West Africa.

The Lord blessed in many areas during those times and has certainly grown and is maturing my faith in Him for the work that He has called me to. The Lord is still doing many other miracles and answering prayers in numerous areas making clear that all that is happening will be accredited to Him alone! The Lord has continued to do the impossible as I have started deputation. He is opening doors for meetings and is providing every need of my deputation ministry! It is only my joy and privilege to be co-laborers with the God of the universe. I appreciate your faithful partnership with me in prayer for God's glory in seeing the world reached with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
